

Call for Members

Now, more than ever, educators and media watchers should consider a membership in the AML. New curriculum guidelines, including important new areas in media studies at the elementary and secondary levels, as well as new initiatives in Information Technology, make the study of media of great importance.

To join the AML, please send in the information requested below with a cheque for $30.00 (per year) to the AML address below. You will receive our newsletter and a password to the member section of the website (www.aml.ca), enjoy a reduction in fees paid for the AML workshops, and have access to resources on media literacy.
